MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANT CHARLES GIORNESTO

Gail Galloway, ("Plaintiff"), requests that a Default Judgment be entered against Defendant Charles Giornesto in favor of Plaintiff..

Defendant Charles Giornesto, ("Giornesto"), has continually violated the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and had refused to answer or comply with any request for discovery by Plaintiff.

Plaintiff served Giornesto his First Set of Interrogatories on February 14, 2004 and served Giornesto with a Request for Production of Document on February 18, 2004. As of June 6, 2004, Giornesto has refused to comply and has refused to answer any Interrogatories or Produce any Documents or make himself available for a deposition. There is no excuse for a Defendant to refuse to answer Interrogatories, Produce Documents or be available for a deposition if needed when all of these things are strict requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff cannot be expected to make his case when he has no access to the Defendant as required by law. If a Defendant, in this case Giornesto, decides to go into hiding, skip out, or refuse to comply with the law and answer the Interrogatories, Produce the Documents and be deposed by the Plaintiff in a lawsuit, then he is thumbing his nose at the Court and the whole judicial system.

THEREFORE, since a considerable amount of time has passed and Defendant Giornesto still refuses to comply with Plaintiff's discovery requests, Plaintiff requests that a Default Judgment be entered against Giornesto in favor of the Plaintiff.

Respectfully submitted,
